About OLLI @Berkeley [1]

OLLI @Berkeley is a stimulating community of inquiring adults, age 50 and above, exploring new areas of knowledge and traditional disciplines through courses, lectures, and events. There are no examinations or grades. OLLI faculty are experts in their fields and enthusiastic about teaching OLLI members, who bring a broad range of life experiences and knowledge to enrich the exchange of ideas. OLLI @Berkeley invites members to discover new friends, new knowledge, new capacities, and new ways to bring meaning and enjoyment to life.

OLLI @Berkeley offers an ongoing program of six-week courses, weekly lecture series, and special events for the community and provides a creative forum for new ideas and expressions. The OLLI classroom is a place where Berkeley's distinguished faculty and other leading experts share their research and interests.

OLLI @Berkeley is:

- A forward-thinking curriculum of courses, events, creative workshops, and lectures
- An interdisciplinary forum for Berkeley faculty
- An ongoing learning community of peers
- An intellectual and cultural connection to the university and the city of Berkeley

OLLI @Berkeley was established in 2007 with generous support from the Bernard Osher Foundation.

Source URL: https://olli.berkeley.edu/about-olli-berkeley

Links
[1] https://olli.berkeley.edu/about-olli-berkeley