Navigation Guide for OLLI Members

July 2023

Welcome to OLLI's Volunteer Program

Volunteering is one of the pillars of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute business model. In addition to taking fascinating courses and participating in fun events, many of our members also volunteer. They help develop the curriculum, create new member interest groups, host social events and help to fundraise - just to name a few. Without their support, OLLI @Berkeley could not provide the array of lifelong learning experiences members enjoy year-round.

Whether you want to spend a few hours a month working from home or prefer to meet regularly with a team of volunteers, it's a wonderful way to meet new friends, stay active and make a difference in our community.

Tracking Your Volunteer Hours

OLLI's volunteer module will track the amount of hours each time you report them.

When the accrued number of volunteer "credit" hours reaches 50, volunteers have the option to redeem them for a COMPLIMENTARY Type A Lecture or Type B small discussion course, depending on your member type.

NOTE: Once redeemed, the system will subtract the redeemed 50 hours and/or indicate any remaining credit hours to be redeemed in the future.

Reporting “Other” Volunteer Hours

*What if I volunteer for tasks that I do not sign up for on the volunteer site?
For example, I am on an ongoing OLLI committee and often I help with research for a staff member.*

*Good question! You will be able to report those hours using the REPORT OTHER VOLUNTEER HOURS option.
See page 11 for more details*
