“Discovering the Ottomans” introduces the Ottoman Empire to the interested learner. We begin with an overview of this vast empire, which ruled not only Turkey but most of the Middle East and the Balkans from the 1400s to the 1920s. Then we discover aspects of Ottoman culture, in order to gain an idea of life in this great state that straddled three continents: Europe, Asia, and Africa.

There are no required texts, but suggested readings for those interested in learning more about the subject at hand are listed under each weekly topic.
