Let’s Do Lunch in Downtown Berkeley

Some suggestions for lunch places in Berkeley near the various classroom sites for OLLI.
Lucille B. Poskanzer
November 2015

****************************

Moderate prices, Near University Hall

Lucky House Thai Cuisine, 2140 University Ave, between Oxford and Shattuck. Fresh delicious and inexpensive Thai food. The chicken won ton soup is recommended.

85 C Bakery Café, 21 Shattuck Square, art University. Delicious variety of pastries and drinks, all moderately priced. Very popular with Asian students.

Arinell Pizza, 2119 Shattuck Ave, Between Addison and Center, the place for a quick slice of thin crust pizza at low cost.

Sandwich Zone, 2117 Shattuck Avenue, between Addison and Center. Good inexpensive sandwiches made to order, as well as breakfast items also.

Hot Cups, 2107 Addison, a good place for a quick sandwich, coffee, or an ice cream, very close to University Hall, and owned by a lovely couple. The Cuban sandwich is recommended.

Saigon Express, 2045 Shattuck Ave, at Addison. Vietnamese, good vermicelli salad bowls, fresh rolls, sandwiches, and pho. You can also choose from the hot buffet items for a filling lunch, but the made to order stuff is better. The Banh Mi sandwiches are a real bargain. Order at the counter.

Ichiban, 2107 Shattuck between University and Addison, decent Japanese food, most people order a moderately priced Bento Box.

Sushi Sho, 64 Shattuck Square, pretty good sushi, and other Japanese specialties, popular at lunch.

Mandarin Garden Restaurant, 2025 Shattuck, between University and Addison. Cheap and plentiful Chinese, good for groups.
Turkish Kitchen, 1986 Shattuck Ave, just North of University. Really tasty Turkish specialties with many unusual dishes to try.

Bangkok Noodle and Thai BBQ, 1958 Shattuck Avenue, between University and Berkeley Way. Modern clean décor, good food and generous portions. The noodle soups and other noodle dishes shine. A little more expensive than other Thai places but worth it.

Thai Noodle, 1936 Shattuck, between Berkeley Way and Hearst. Small and usually crowded, but fast service for good, generously portioned, inexpensive Thai food. All the noodle dishes are especially tasty.

Bobby G’s Pizzeria, 2072 University just below Shattuck, good pizza and salads, informal and welcoming atmosphere.

IMM Thai Street Food, 2068 University Avenue, between Shattuck and Milvia, a new place with moderately priced tasty Thai food.

Moderate prices, Nearer Freight and Salvage

Going West from the Freight:

Gecko Gecko, 2101 Milvia Street, at the corner of Addison. Surprisingly tasty Thai food, despite the awful name. Delicious curries, wraps, and noodles.

Au Coquelet Café, 2000 University Ave, at Milvia. A large menu of hearty burgers, sandwiches salads, and soups. Good coffee and pastries also. Order at the counter.

Udupi Palace, 1901 University Ave, at MLKing. Southern Indian, specializing in Dosas (huge filled crepes), as well as Uthappam (flat, filled pancakes.)

Chaat Café, 1902 University Ave, at M. L. King. Indian, lots of small appetizer plates, tandoori wrap sandwiches, salads, curries. Order at the counter.

Jayakarta, 2026 University between Shattuck and Milvia. Inexpensive Indonesian Singaporean food.

Platano Salvadoran Cuisine, 2042 University, between Shattuck and Milvia. Inexpensive Salvadoran food, usually not crowded.

Burro Mexican Restaurant, 2021 Univerwsity Avenue, near Milvia. New, tasty Mexican standards.

Brazil Café, 1960 University Avenue, between Milvia and Bonita, new location same delicius food, lovely Rose Garden in the back patio
Athineon, 1941 University Avenue, between Bonita and Martin Luther King Way. One of the very few Greek-Mediterranean places in the East Bay. Hearty portions, good sandwiches, moderate prices, friendly service—beer and wine also.

Going East from the Freight:

Jazz Cafe, 2087 Addison St, between Shattuck and Milvia. Tasty soups, salads, and panini. Quiet atmosphere, nice background music. Order at the counter.

PIQ Berkeley, 91 Shattuck Square, at Addison. Pizzas, panini, and pastries, all delicious and well priced. Good coffee too.

Phil's Sliders, 2024 Shattuck, between University and Addison. Tasty inexpensive miniburgers, tater tots, and drinks—fast and informal service

The Sandwich Spot, 2106 Shattuck between Addison and Center, good inexpensive made to order sandwiches, good for takeout. Also open for breakfast items.

Paris Baguette, 2150 Shattuck Avenue, between Center and Allston, a huge variety of terrific pastries, as well as sandwiches and salads, very popular.

Sushi Secrets, 2110 Shattuck Avenue, between Addison and Center, Sushi “burritos” and bubble tea for something completely different.

Burrito’s Inc, 2116 Shattuck Avenue, between Addison and Center. Pretty good burritos and rice bowls, not expensive, quick service.

Seasons of Japan, 2122 Shattuck Avenue, between Addison and Center, Moderately prices rice bowls, as well as sushi rolls and bento boxes.

Togo’s Sandwiches, 2172 Shattuck Avenue, between Center and Allston, good for when you are in a hurry and want an inexpensive well made sandwich or a salad and soup.

Eureka, 2068 Center Street, between Shattuck and Milvia. Terrific burgers, pretty good salads and other items, nice atmosphere. Happy Hour begins at 2 PM!

Tamon Tea, 2055 A Center Street, between Shattuck and Milvia. A very small storefront featuring delicious Japanese food and especially creative rice bowls. Very little seating.

Cu, Japanese Fusion Sushi and Roll, 2152 Center Street, between Oxford and Shattuck. Good, inexpensive Japanese food. Lots of outdoor tables.
Sliver Pizzeria, 2132 Center Street, delicious pizza by the slice, one choice only each day, plus some salads. Very Very popular.

Slider Bar, 2124 Center Street between Shattuck and Oxford, a large variety of mini burgers as well as salads and drinks, informal atmosphere.

Oasis Mediterranean Grill, 2114 Center Street between Shattuck and Oxford. Tasty low priced Mediterranean food, good falafel sandwiches, a few outdoor tables. Order at the counter, fairly quick service if not crowded.

Crunch, 2144 Center Street, between Shattuck and Oxford, Korean American Fusion food, decent prices, good size portions.

Razan’s Organic Kitchen, 2119 Kittredge Street, between Oxford and Shattuck. Delicious organic food with a Middle Eastern touch.

Tia’s Berkeley, 2179 Kitteridge Street, at Oxford. Sandwiches, salads, soups and drinks. Food is moderately priced, decent but not terrific.

Saturn Café, 2175 Allston Way at Oxford. Large menu of vegetarian and vegan food, moderately priced and tasty.

Cancun, 2134 Allston Way, between Oxford and Shattuck. Large portions of good Mexican food, usually full of students at lunch.

Jupiter, 2181 Shattuck, between Allston and Center in Trumpetvine Court. Pretty good sandwiches, salads, and pizzas. Table service and nice outdoor patio. Also under the same management is Caffe Panini, where you order at the counter and the food is brought to you in the patio.

EZ Stop Deli, 2233 Shattuck Ave, between Allston and Kittredge. The best and cheapest hot turkey sandwich in town. Other choices are also really good and cheap, including Bud’s ice cream cones. Take out only. Really friendly owners.

Burgermeister, 2237 Shattuck Avenue, at Kittredge. Big juicy hamburgers with all the fixings. Slightly sports bar atmosphere, complete with TV’s.

Gather, 2200 Oxford Street, at Allston Way. A little pricey, but locally sourced good food, with lots of vegan and vegetarian options. Beautiful and tasty salads and pizzas too. Lovely outdoor patio for warm days.

East Bay Spice Company, 2134 Oxford Street, between Center and Allston, Indian small plates, not expensive and well done.
Suya, 2130 Oxford Street, between Center and Allston, African Caribbean skewers and wraps, moderately priced.

A Little Further Away from OLLI sites

Venus, 2327 Shattuck, between Bancroft and Durant. Healthy delicious offerings, usually organic. Good vegetarian choices.

Toss Noodle Bar, 2272 Shattuck, between Kittredge and Allston, delicious array of South East noodle dishes, either in soup or tossed. Order at the counter.

Herbivore, 2451 Shattuck at Haste. Pretty good vegan food. Quiet atmosphere.

Café Clem, 2020 Kitteredge next to the Berkeley Library, nice outdoor patio, decent sandwiches and drinks.

Lox, Stock, and Bagels, 2043 Allston, between Shattuck and Milvia, good build it yourself sandwiches, generous salad bar, good soups and toasted bagels. Very informal.

Great China, 2190 Bancroft Way, at Oxford, Always crowded and noisy, but terrific generously portioned moderately priced Chinese food.

Le Petit Cochon, 1801 Shattuck Avenue, between Hearst and Delaware, Lovely French Bistro food. Moderate prices, affiliated with the pricier Liaison.

Pricier downtown Berkeley choices

Five, 2086 Allston Way, in the Shattuck Hotel. A “fancy” restaurant downtown. Good food, good wine, off the wall décor, great bar.

Liaison, 1849 Shattuck Ave, at Hearst. French Bistro, very popular and often noisy.

Anh Hong, 2067 University Ave, between Shattuck and Milvia. Large space, upscale Vietnamese food. Rarely crowded, good for a group.

La Note, 2377 Shattuck Ave, between Durant and Channing Way. Well-portioned French sandwiches, salads, soups. Lively atmosphere with a beautiful back patio for warm days.
Alborz, 2142 Center St, at Shattuck. Persian food, pleasant outdoor tables, nice service.

The Musical Offering Café, 2340 Bancroft, near Dana. Good salads, soups and sandwiches, nice classical music in the background. One of the pleasanter places for lunch.